Building a database of respiratory guidelines: why, how, and what for?

Liz Stovold and Emma Welsh

What for?

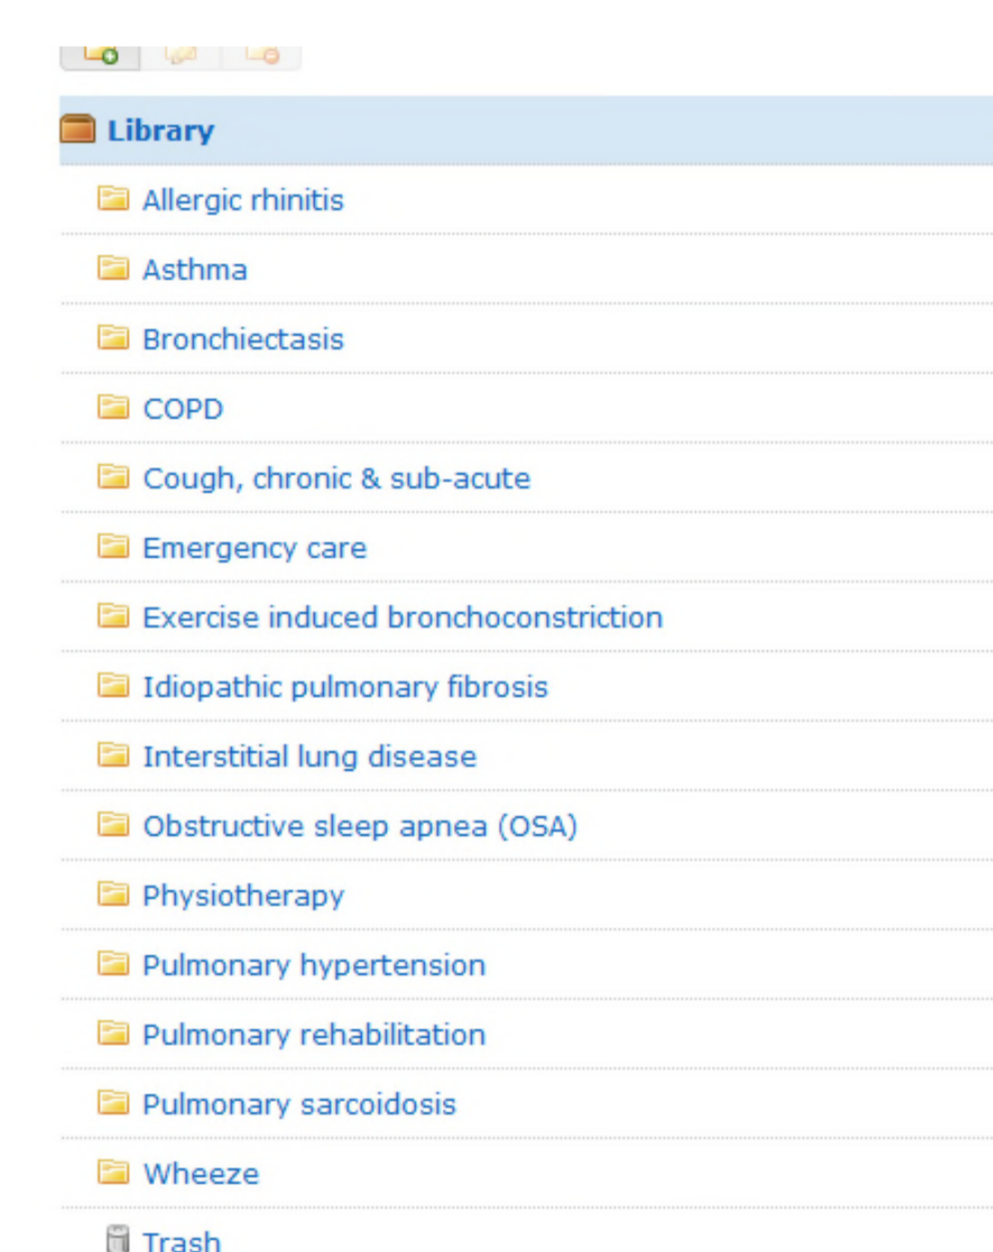

- Bring together National and International Guidelines in one place
- We need to know/cite guidelines in reviews
- Helpful for authors
- General resource for people working in respiratory medicine or research, giving something back

How do we find guidelines?

- Monthly PubMed search: “consensus development conference”[tiab] OR “consensus development conference”[ptyp] OR (“Guidelines as Topic”[Mesh] OR “Health Planning Guidelines”[Mesh]) OR “Guideline”[ptyp] OR “consensus statement”[tiab] OR guideline[ti]
- Serendipity and check major respiratory society webpages

How do we organise?

zotero

- National and international
- 89 guidelines
- 15 topics
